A provision of the New York State Quality Child Care and Protection Act of 2000 requires that each applicant submit the results of a criminal background check. A fingerprint form, State Central Register Database Check and Medical Statement for Child Care Staff will be supplied by our office at hire. All forms must be completed and returned to us prior to beginning employment. Note that fingerprints can be obtained at no charge through the Office of Children and Family Services, the Childcare Resource Network and various other sites.

The above information is true to the best of my knowledge and I authorize CPCC to contact the above mentioned persons and/or organizations regarding this application. I understand that as a condition of employment I must furnish a criminal history report.
